

PowerPoint Template for Pilot Climate Prosperity Strategy Presentations at the Climate Prosperity Silicon Valley Launch Event and National Strategic Leadership Conference, February 20-21, 2009, San Jose, CA

Slide 1: Name of strategy (e.g. Southwest Florida Climate Prosperity Strategy)
Climate Prosperity National Leadership Meeting
San Jose, CA, February 21, 2009

Slide 2: Name of the organization (or organizations) coordinating the Climate Prosperity Strategy.

Slide 3: Names of the other key stakeholder organizations actively involved in the Climate Prosperity Strategy.

Slide 4: Names, job titles, and primary organizational affiliation of the people who are providing decision-making leadership for the Climate Prosperity Strategy.

Slide 5: List the main economic, environmental, political, and social challenges and opportunities that you are addressing by engaging in a Climate Prosperity Strategy.

Slide 6: List the overall goals and objectives of the Climate Prosperity Strategy.

Slide 7: Describe the basic elements of the Climate Prosperity Strategy under the heading of “Green Savings.”

Slide 8: Describe the basic elements of the Climate Prosperity Strategy under the heading of “Green Opportunities.”

Slide 9: Describe the basic elements of the Climate Prosperity Strategy under the heading of “Green Talent.”

Slide 10: Explain your strategic planning process and list the action steps already taken.

Slide 11: List future action steps together with a timeline for accomplishment.

Slide 12: List the fundamental assets and competitive advantage of people and place that support achieving the goals and objectives of the Climate Prosperity Strategy.

Slide 13: List the key obstacles and impediments that need to be managed or overcome in order to successfully achieve the goals and objectives of the Climate Prosperity Strategy.

Slide 14: List major sources of financing and in-kind resources available to support development and implementation of the Climate Prosperity Strategy (including local, state, and federal government, private sector, and philanthropy).

Slide 15: List plans for engaging in extensive citizen outreach and encouraging broad-based participation and inclusiveness in developing and implementing the Climate Prosperity Strategy.

Slide 16: List advice and assistance needed from Climate Prosperity and its national and global network.